Ibero American Film Festival Miami (IAFFM)

The Ibero-American Film Festival Miami (IAFFM), its flagship event, presents a curated selection of films, premieres, and internationally recognized talent, showcasing the richness and diversity of Ibero-American cinema.

IAAM – Iberoamerican Audiovisual Market

The Ibero-American Audiovisual Market (IAM) fosters industry connections by creating opportunities for co-productions, partnerships, and business development between creators, producers, and distributors.

IAFS – Iberoamerican Fiscal Sponsorship

The Ibero-American Fiscal Sponsorship (IAFS) provides filmmakers and cultural initiatives with financial and administrative infrastructure, enabling projects to access funding and operate with institutional support.

Antologías

ANTOLOGÍAS expands the organization's year-round presence through a curated program of standout Ibero-American works, strengthening audience engagement and reinforcing its commitment to cultural exchange and professional development.

2026

Ibero American Film Festival Miami

Over the years, the IAFFM has grown into a dynamic space for premieres, emerging voices, and international collaborations, reflecting the cultural diversity that defines both Miami and the nation. As the United States approaches its 250th anniversary, the festival embraces this historic milestone as an opportunity to celebrate and highlight the profound impact of Hispanic communities in shaping the country's cultural identity, creative industries, and future narratives.
